Thinking about purchasing a home from Alliance Custom Homes? Please our review before you do.

When our family decided to make the big move from Ontario to Calgary, we knew finding the right home builder would be crucial. It took a lot of research and investigation prior to making the decision to pick a home builder. We took a chance on Alliance Custom Homes and Bhupinder, and it has proven to be one of the best decisions we've made.

Seamless Process from Start to Finish

From our very first interaction, Bhupinder and his team at Alliance Custom Homes demonstrated exceptional professionalism and care. They understood the challenges of our long-distance move and went above and beyond to accommodate our needs at every step. Their flexibility and attention to detail and communications, made what could have been a stressful transition a smooth and manageable one.

Commitment to Quality and Customer Satisfaction

What sets Alliance Custom Homes apart is their unwavering commitment to customer satisfaction. Not only did they address any minor issues promptly within the first year, but Bhupinder continues to check in with us nearly three years later to ensure we're still happy with our home. This level of dedication is rare and deeply appreciated.

A Builder You Can Trust

As a child, I watching my father take a chance on a new builder (who went on to become highly successful), I recognized the potential in Bhupinder when we met, prior to me making my decision. Although he was relatively new to independent home building at the time, his passion, expertise, and customer-focused approach were evident. Taking a chance on Alliance Custom Homes has paid off tremendously for our family.

A Home We Love

Today, our family feels safe, comfortable, and genuinely happy in our home. Any minor issues we've encountered (and they have only ever been minor, as occurs with all new homes - nothing can be perfect) have been addressed quickly and efficiently. It's clear that Alliance Custom Homes takes pride in their work and values long-term relationships with their clients.

Heartfelt Recommendation

If you're considering building a home and are thinking about giving Alliance Custom Homes a chance, I wholeheartedly encourage you to do so. Based on our experience, you'll be working with a builder who truly cares about creating not just a house, but a home that you'll love for years to come.

Bhupinder and Alliance Custom Homes have earned our trust, gratitude, and recommendation. They've proven that when you choose the right builder, the journey of creating your dream home can be as rewarding as the final result.

Best of luck on your new home purchase!
